

I would like to request that the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. From before registering with the Attorney General's office my phone rang constantly evenings, weekends, even on Sunday. Now I have some peace during my private time and feel I can answer the phone knowing it is someone I want to talk with.